

Edward Zaninelli

Mr. Edward Zaninelli is currently the Vice President of the Transpacific Westbound Trade headquartered in San Ramon, California. With 30 years in the Transportation Industry, Ed started out in trucking industry, followed by 14 years with Sealand Services, 5 years with Nedlloyd USA and now 14 years with OOCL (USA) Inc.

Ed's experience encompasses not only the sales aspect, but also operations, pricing and customer service in multiple trade lanes from South America, the Caribbean, the Atlantic Trade, and lastly on the Pacific Trade which has been his major focus the last 9 years.

In dealing with the customers and products of OOCL, Ed has gained a great amount of experience in the Asian market, especially the China market. With OOCL as a leader in the China Trade, and all Asia, Ed is greatly involved in the flow of Traffic via ship, rail, or truck within the infrastructure of North America and Asia.

Ed's holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Moravian College located in Pennsylvania.